

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Attachment

School of International Communism and the USSR

- a. Introduction to Communism A two-weeks, full-time course which represents the second half of the IOC. This provides an orientation in Communist Doctrine; history, organization and capabilities of the USSR, Communist China and Free World Parties; strategy and tactics. It is not designed to develop a professional competence in this field but to introduce all Agency professional employees to the general nature of the opposition.
- b. Communist Party Organization and Operations A four-week, half-time course covering in detail the organization and activities of CPs in the Free World. A brief introductory section reviews the development and current status of the CPSU, and its relationship to other CPs.
- c. Anti-Communist Operations A four-week, half-time course covering Agency operations against CPs in the Free World.
- d. USSR Basic Country Survey Offered two afternoons per week for ten weeks, covering the history; political organization; economic, military and scientific capabilities; culture and foreign policy of the USSR.

Language and Area School

- a. Integrated USSR A thirteen-week course, meeting six hours a week and embracing a Basic country survey of the USSR in Russian.
- b. Regional Survey: Soviet Satellite Bloc A ten-week course meeting six hours a week and covering the regional relationships and divergencies between the USSR and its East European Satellites.
- c. Regional Survey: Economic Geography of the Soviet Satellite Bloc An eight-week course meeting four hours a week and covering a specialized study of the economic geography of the Soviet Satellite Bloc in Europe.
- d. Regional Survey: East Asia An eight-week course meeting seven and one-half hours a week and covering the impact of the West, including Russia, on China, Japan and Korea in the last 150 years.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

- e. Basic Country Survey: China A ten-week course meeting six hours a week and covering the history, political, social, cultural and economical development of China down to the present time.
- f. Basic Country Survey: Hungary A ten-week course meeting six hours a week and covering the history, political, social, cultural and economic development of Hungary, particularly in the modern period.
- g. Current Problems Seminar: The Political Systems of Asia

A six-week course meeting six hours a week and constituting a comparative analysis of the principal political systems of East Asia, Southeast Asia and South Asia, with a discussion of the influence of the political systems and ideologies of Russia and the West upon the Asian political scene.

- 2 -
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~